History of St. Vincent de Paul Society

A college student, Frederic Ozanam, and a group of five peers founded the Society of St. Vincent DePaul in Paris in 1813. With their mentor, Emmanuel Baily, they set up the first local group, which we call a conference, to show their faith inspired them to love and care for others; and to learn about deepen and straighten in their faith, to grow closer to God. They took as their patron saint, St. Vincent DePaul, a well-known saint of Christian Charity. St Vincent DePaul (1581-1660) realized that God wanted him to work with those living in poverty he saw all around him. He embodied energetic, humble service to those in need but also recognized that charitable work must be well-organized in order, to be effective. Today there are more than 44,600 Conferences with more than 800,000 members working in 154 countries throughout the world.

Yearly Report for St. Vincent de Paul

Our Conference of St Vincet De Paul, Wauseon is so thankful of your generous food donations and also from the second collections every month! It keeps us being able to support people in need.

This year we had 458 calls – 80 were for food and total people living within those families is 264. We further assisted the rest with utilities and rent assistance. Plus 12 homeless requested help.

Every contribution helps with food and supplies to support our needs. We are so THANKFUL for your tremendous support during these times. It is a huge impact knowing you gave from your heart.

Thank you!

God Bless!
